

I ask that you please do not allow Low Power FM stations to take over the current FM translator service. This would put many non-profit radio stations such as K-Love and Air 1 at a disadvantage with those stations that are more well funded. Not only would it not be fair, but you would also be taking valuable stations such as Air 1 away from those who really enjoy it.